

SYMPTOMS OF SWALLOWING DISORDER

- Recurrent chest infections
- Consistent coughing/choking before, during or after swallowing
- Drooling of saliva
- Spillage of food/drink from the mouth
- Food staying in mouth after swallowing
- Difficulty chewing (slow or too fast)
- Spitting out food
- Food coming out of the nose
- Increasing fatigue when eating
- Wet or gurgly voice, breathy or loss of voice after swallowing
- Pain when swallowing
- Feeling like something is stuck after swallowing
- Unexplained weight loss
- Prolonged mealtimes.

SYMPTOMS OF SWALLOWING DISORDER

GRP SPEECH PATHOLOGY

0434155592 | info@grpspeechpathology.com.au | www.grpspeechpathology.com.au